Effective Date: July 1, 2007.

Explanation of State Expenditures:

Explanation of State Revenues: Class A Infraction: Each violation of this chapter concerning security freezes on credit reports, results in a separate offense, which is punishable by a Class A infraction. If additional court cases occur and infraction judgments and court fees are collected, revenue to the state General Fund may increase. The maximum judgment for a Class A infraction is $10,000, which is deposited in the state General Fund.

If court actions are filed and a judgment is entered, a court fee of $70 would be assessed, 70% of which would be deposited in the state General Fund if the case is filed in a court of record or 55% if the case is filed in a city or town court.

Cause of Action: The bill also provides that a person who negligently fails to comply with the requirements of the chapter to be liable to the consumer. If additional civil actions occur and court fees are collected, revenue to the state General Fund may increase. A civil filing fee of $100 would be assessed when a civil case is filed, 70% of which would be deposited in the state General Fund if the case is filed in a court of record or 55% if the case is filed in a city or town court.

In addition to the state share of the court fee or filing fee, some or all of the judicial salaries fee ($15), the public defense administration fee ($3), the court administration fee ($2), and the judicial insurance adjustment fee ($1) are deposited into the state General Fund.

Explanation of Local Expenditures:

Explanation of Local Revenues: Class A Infraction and Cause of Action: If additional court actions are filed and a judgment is entered, local governments would receive revenue from the following sources. The county general fund would receive 27% of the $70 court fee or $100 filing fee that is assessed in a court of record. Cities and towns maintaining a law enforcement agency that prosecutes at least 50% of its ordinance violations in a court of record may receive 3% of court fees. If the case is filed in a city or town court, 20% of the court fee would be deposited in the county general fund and 25% would be deposited in the city or town general fund. Additional fees may be collected at the discretion of the judge and depending upon the particular type of case.
